Romans 13:1; John 19:11 - The government and authorities, no matter where they are in this world, are in God’s hand.

Psalm 135:6; Ephesians 1:11 - God does what he pleases. He is not compelled by any external force and is working all things according to and accomplishing his will and plans.

John 3:35; John 17:2; Ephesians 1:20-22 - God, our heavenly Father, shares his complete and total authority with Jesus, his beloved Son who I worship and have given my life to.

Daniel 2:20-21; Proverbs 21:1; Isaiah 14:24-25; Job 42:2 - God sets up rulers and brings them down and governs all that they do and no one can mess his plans up.

Isaiah 40:15, 17 - There is no one like our God.

Daniel 7:14; Luke 1:33; Psalm 31:15 - God reminds me that it is his kingdom that which I am to be ultimately concerned and his kingdom will have no end. Every breath that I breathe and all my time that I exist in this world is in God’s hands and so for that matter is everyone else. Therefore, while things rage around us and don’t happen as we may like remain kingdom minded through it all and don’t loose sight of it. Don’t lose sight of who rules, governs and has authority over it all.

TEXT: <sup>12</sup>“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. <sup>13</sup>When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. <sup>14</sup>He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. <sup>15</sup>All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Focus: Why the Holy Spirit is needed in our lives.

1. Jesus has more revelation to give (V. 12).

Conclusion: The Spirit of God was needed to ensure the bible we have, the completed revelation of God, is divine in origin and absolutely true and without error. He is needed for us today, not just to be effective witnesses for Jesus, but also to give us light as we read and listen to the Word of God taught or preached. And we need the Spirit of God to so move in our hearts and minds through the Word of God to increase our hearts capacity to love Jesus Christ and long to be with him forever.
